

The Town of Dubois, Wyoming

Dubois, WY (pronounced DU-BOYS), is an adorable cowboy town located in the Upper Wind River Valley. Dubois is a gateway town to Grand Teton & Yellowstone National Parks, but the area surrounding the town is just as beautiful as the parks.

The Dubois area is a perfect destination for the outdoor enthusiast. Outdoor lovers in the area enjoy hiking, horseback riding, ATVing, hunting & fishing.

The blue-ribbon trout filled Wind River, which runs through town, is a favorite of fly-fishermen, as well as many nearby mountain lakes & streams.

Winter in the Dubois area is a whole new adventure! Enjoy cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, dogsledding & snowmobiling. This area has some of the best snowmobiling anywhere on the Continental Divide Snowmobile Trail.

So come visit Dubois, Wyoming and stay a while! We'd love to have you at The Fly-Fishing Hideaway on the Wind!

ENJOY THE RELAXING WIND RIVER!

Your Own Little Piece of Heaven!

This adorable 3 bedroom/1 bath log cabin has been recently remodeled & furnished in western décor and log furniture and is ready to be your next vacation get-away!

The cabin is located directly on the scenic Wind River only 2 miles from historic downtown Dubois. Enjoy sitting on the deck next to the rushing river while looking out over the breathtaking Wind River Mountains & colorful badlands from the home. Huge century old cottonwoods surround the home, making for a very private setting.

This cabin has a cozy stone fireplace in the living area for cool evenings. The 3 bedroom home consists of one bedroom with a log queen bed and a full bath downstairs. The upper level has two bedrooms – both have beautiful log beds & décor.

There is a small game room just off the kitchen with a foosball table & darts. A nice collection of western books on the living room's large bookshelf is arranged for the visitor's enjoyment. The dining table converts to a 3-in-1 Bumper Pool/ Poker Table for pool sharks & gamblers!
